

19 Alison Drive, Kalkie

ONE PROPERTY. TWO RESIDENCES. THREE GREAT OPTIONS.

If you're looking to grow your investment portfolio, accommodate extended family in the future, or simply find your next home with the potential to earn an additional income, then look no further.

This is a rare opportunity to secure a genuine modern duplex in Bundaberg's growth corridor, offering two completely separate residences designed for privacy, practicality and flexibility. Built in 2016, each side enjoys its own kitchen, living areas, outdoor entertaining space, fully fenced yard and lock-up garage, creating an ideal setup for dual rental income, extended family living or the opportunity to live in one while earning an income from the other.

What really sets this property apart is the choice it gives you, both now and into the future.

2. EXTENDED FAMILY LIVING IN THE FUTURE

Once the existing lease arrangements come to an end, the two separate residences create an ideal setup for parents, grandparents, adult children or extended family. Live close together while still maintaining your own space and independence.

3. LIVE IN ONE —RENT THE OTHER

Make one side your home and continue renting the other, providing an ongoing income stream that can help offset the costs of home ownership.
