Marsden Estate Standout

Presenting an impressive combination of contemporary luxury and exceptional space, this custom-built and highly appointed Marsden residence is a home that truly makes an impression. Set on one of the largest lots in the estate, it offers a rare opportunity to enjoy a sophisticated home without compromising on the space that your family deserves.

Inside, the home embraces a refined, neutral colour palette. The four bedrooms are all generous sizes and feature custom cabinetry, while two beautifully appointed bathrooms and three toilets add practicality to the home's luxurious design. The interiors have been thoughtfully finished with contemporary features and chic details, creating a home that feels polished, modern and effortlessly stylish.

At the heart of the home, the open plan living room features pitched ceilings and skylights that flow seamlessly through to the designer kitchen. Light and bright throughout, the neutral tones and carefully selected finishes give the home a contemporary feel, while generous proportions ensure there is plenty of room for everyday family living and entertaining.

The amazing aspect is what truly sets this property apart, with amazing views towards Bathurst and surrounds. The alfresco is
