

56 Middleton Road, Kew

Solid Kew Home - Full of Character

Positioned perfectly to capture the stunning views, this solid brick home combines classic charm with lasting appeal in the ever-popular suburb of Kew.

Step inside and you'll immediately notice the character features that give this home its heart - from the rich timber detailing to the inviting feel that only a well-built, well-loved home can offer. It's a space that feels warm and welcoming from the moment you enter. There are 2 sunrooms on the floorplan, utilised well as bedrooms

All of this complemented by insulation, a heat pump and two open fire places for year-round comfort. The layout features a welcoming living area and a tidy, separate kitchen. A separate shed that has potential as a sleep-out adds even more flexibility. There are plenty of options here to suit your needs. The dining room has double glazing.

The established section with several fruit trees offers a lovely sense of space, with a single garage completing the package. There is also some on street parking available. There is under house storage available as well.
