

129 Moore Street, Kingaroy

High on the Hill

Positioned on an elevated corner allotment, this well-maintained home enjoys a peaceful rural outlook and a practical layout designed for comfortable family living.

The spacious lounge and dining area provides a welcoming central living space, complemented by a functional kitchen with ample bench space, pantry storage and electric cooking. Three built-in bedrooms are serviced by a main bathroom featuring a full-size bath and separate shower, along with a good-sized laundry and separate toilet. Near-new carpets and ducted reverse-cycle air-conditioning provide added comfort throughout the home.

Outside, the rear patio offers a relaxed space for entertaining, while the front deck makes the most of the elevated position and surrounding rural views. A double integral lock-up garage provides secure vehicle accommodation, with the fully fenced rear yard offering plenty of space for children, pets or future improvements.

Set on a generous 1,178m² corner allotment, this is a well-presented property offering established features, comfortable living spaces and a peaceful outlook, providing a solid foundation for its next owners.
