

24-26 Webster Street, Kingaroy

Timeless Character Home

An iconic Kingaroy residence, this distinguished brick home blends timeless Interwar character with enduring mid-century appeal, occupying a commanding half-acre corner allotment framed by beautifully established gardens.

Rich in heritage detail, the home showcases impressive proportions and elegant craftsmanship throughout. French doors create a seamless connection between the formal entry, kitchen and living spaces, while the expansive formal lounge and dining room is centred around a striking feature fireplace, providing a warm and inviting focal point. Thoughtfully renovated, the kitchen complements the home's classic interiors, combining modern functionality with timeless style.

Accommodation comprises three exceptionally generous bedrooms, each appointed with built-in wardrobes, ducted air conditioning and ceiling fans for year-round comfort. The spacious bathroom has been sympathetically updated to remain in keeping with the home's distinctive character, while an abundance of built-in storage throughout is a rare and highly desirable feature for a residence of this era.

Outside, the home continues to impress with a double lock-up garage, an expansive brick-paved forecourt providing ample off-street parking,
