

60 Haly Street, Kingaroy

Character Project

Brimming with potential, this classic worker's cottage offers the perfect opportunity for those with a keen eye and a bit of know-how. Set on a generous 1,012sqm block just minutes from the heart of Kingaroy, this property provides a solid foundation for your next renovation or restoration project.

Inside, the home features a central kitchen and dining area, a separate lounge with a wood heater, and two bedrooms — with the layout allowing for easy conversion to a third bedroom if desired. There's also a bathroom, sunroom, and a large combined carport and outdoor area offering plenty of versatility.

The established gardens have been lovingly maintained over the years using bore water. The bore is currently capped and will require a new pump, but with a little attention the gardens could quickly be revived to their former glory. Two garden sheds add to the practicality of the property.

With timeless character features waiting to be brought back to life, this home presents an ideal canvas for a young tradesperson, a seasoned renovator, or anyone who appreciates the charm and potential of a home with history. Whether you're looking to create your dream residence or invest in a rewarding project, this is your chance
