Step outside and down to the courtyard and boardwalk, and Cudgen Creek becomes an extension of your backyard. The north-easterly orientation brings sunshine and coastal breezes into the home, while multiple terraces provide plenty of places to relax and take in the outlook.

Freshly Updated with More Potential to Unlock

Recent improvements including polished timber floorboards, new carpet, fresh paint (inside and out), new blinds and curtains, plus an epoxy-finished garage floor mean much of the work has already been done.

Move straight in and enjoy it exactly as it is or take advantage of the property's underlying potential and create something truly special. The generous under-house storage is another standout, offering excellent space for boards, kayaks and lifestyle equipment, with similar properties demonstrating the possibilities this area may offer for further enhancement, subject to the relevant approvals.
