with everyday practicality. Spotted gum hybrid timber flooring introduces warmth and texture and a considered layout ensures exceptional storage and seamless entertaining capability.

The open plan living and dining domain is both inviting and functional, enhanced by striking floor-to-ceiling steel-framed doors. These open onto a professionally landscaped private courtyard, where lush plantings and a generous timber deck create a seamless extension of the interior - ideal for year-round entertaining or quiet relaxation.

Comfort is assured throughout the seasons with a smart home ducted heating and cooling system, while the home's recent renovation includes updated lighting, electrical works and the addition of majority double-glazed windows and skylights to enhance efficiency and liveability.

Further highlights include secure underground parking for three vehicles with direct access to the lower level, a substantial separate storeroom, and a full-size contemporary laundry complete with engineered stone benchtop and feature tile splashback.

Positioned just moments from the Kingston Foreshore, the Old Bus Depot Markets, Lake Burley Griffin, Telopea Park and the boutiques, cafés and restaurants of Manuka Village, this exceptional residence offers a lifestyle defined by convenience, quality and enduring appeal.
