

60/53 Dawes Street, Kingston

Central Kingston Living with Generous Space and Natural Light

Enjoy a wonderful combination of space, natural light and everyday convenience in this spacious two-bedroom apartment, ideally positioned on the fourth floor of a secure complex in the heart of Kingston. Offering comfortable interiors, a practical open-plan layout and a welcoming sense of space, this apartment is perfectly suited to those seeking a relaxed lifestyle in a convenient central location.

The light-filled open-plan lounge and dining area provides a generous setting for relaxing, entertaining and enjoying the natural sunlight throughout the day. Flowing seamlessly from the living space, the private balcony overlooks the beautifully maintained complex gardens, creating a pleasant outlook and an inviting space. The modern kitchen is practically equipped with gas cooking and a dishwasher.

Accommodation is well considered, with two comfortable bedrooms, both featuring built-in robes, while the master bedroom includes a spacious ensuite for added privacy and convenience. Reverse-cycle heating and cooling ensures year-round comfort, while secure lift access makes coming and going effortless.
