Strong Investment Opportunity on Generous Block - 265 Dunbar Street, Koongal

Positioned in a convenient and consistently sought-after location, 265 Dunbar Street presents an excellent opportunity for investors seeking a low-maintenance asset with solid rental appeal.

This well-presented home features three generously sized bedrooms, catering perfectly to the strong demand for affordable family rentals in the area. A centrally located bathroom services the home, while the functional layout includes a comfortable living space flowing through to a practical kitchen, designed for easy everyday living.

Set on a substantial 703sqm corner block, the property offers significant upside potential. The large backyard provides scope for future enhancements, increased tenant appeal, or simply a spacious outdoor area that is highly attractive to long-term renters.

Additional features include a single garage, ensuring secure parking and added storage, an important consideration for tenants.

Located in the established suburb of Koongal, the property is within
