

Krambach, 3767 The Bucketts Way

KRAMBACH CRACKER

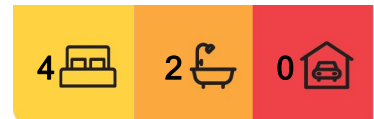

A beautiful, recently-renovated property has now come to the market.

This four bedroom and two bathroom home has been renovated beautifully to the highest standard with a well-known local builder; high ceilings throughout give the property a great sense of space.

Open-plan living with stunning district views of the Krambach range is an absolute feature of the property. A large, undercover timber deck allows for outdoor entertaining with a picturesque back drop of valleys and mountain views.

Clever use of space and design has created a very liveable home for a family or couple escaping the city for a country village feel.

The home has four generous-sized bedrooms including a master bedroom with walk-in-robe and well-appointed ensuite.

The kitchen is complete with a large walk-in pantry. A separate living area and dining area opens onto the outdoor entertaining area. The design has allowed for an internal laundry and cupboard space that is neatly, yet conveniently, located near the deck area.

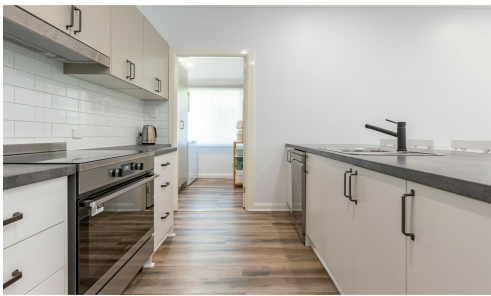

Krambach has become a sought-after destination for development and lifestyle for people looking for a relaxed rural lifestyle.

Only 15 minutes easy drive to the M1 and Nambucca Village, with Gloucester tops and National Park to the west, making the area highly desirable.

This property is a real must for an inspection.

Inspection by appointment only. Contact Steve Atkins on 0488 788 169.
