From the moment you step inside, the home opens into a bright, light-filled layout designed for easy living. A separate media room or formal lounge with feature walls at the front provides excellent flexibility - ideal for movie nights or a quiet retreat away from the main living zones.

At the heart of the home, the open-plan living and dining area is anchored by a striking modern kitchen. Featuring a large island bench, quality finishes, waterfall stone benchtops and a well-appointed walk-in pantry, this space is both functional and visually impressive. It's perfectly designed for entertaining or simply enjoying day-to-day family life, with a seamless connection across all living areas.

Glass doors extend the living space out to a covered alfresco area, complete with privacy blinds - creating a semi-enclosed outdoor zone that can be enjoyed year-round. Whether hosting friends or relaxing in the evening, this space offers both comfort and versatility, while the low-maintenance backyard provides a blank canvas to personalise.

Accommodation is thoughtfully designed, with four well-sized bedrooms, each fitted with built-in robes. The master suite offers a private retreat, complete with a spacious open ensuite featuring dual vanities, a freestanding tub, and a clean, modern finish. The additional bedrooms are serviced by a stylish central bathroom, continuing the home's cohesive and contemporary design.

Additional features include:

- Ducted air conditioning throughout
- Solar panel system for energy efficiency
- Internal access double garage
- Quality cabinetry and storage throughout

Set in a peaceful, family-friendly pocket of Kuraby, this home enjoys close proximity to Voyager Drive Park, Kuraby State School, Kuraby train station, and Underwood Marketplace. It's a location that delivers both lifestyle and convenience, making everyday living effortless.

Move-in ready and designed for modern family living, this is a home not to be missed.
