power and Solar Hot Water System to help offset costs

With an expansive street frontage, this property is impossible to miss and the vehicle entrance is in a handy alcove off the main road, allowing for easy reversing of cars parked along the herringbone patterned paved driveway or in the secure double garage.

Gently rising to meet a pillared porch, the front yard is mainly lawn, the back fully fenced with gate access to a side yard with more grass framing an airy alfresco entertaining area, and a separate open-air paved play zone to set up a basketball or netball hoop.

Inside, the floorplan is tailored to modern family living - the streetside master suite and its adjacent home office well distanced from the 3 kids' rooms out back, and the central kitchen embraced by a formal lounge and dining room one side, and overlooking a spacious family meals area that connects into a large rumpus.

The outdoor patio is 52m² and accessible from the rumpus and casual meals hub, enabling easy indoor/outdoor flow for playtime and catering. The main bathroom (shower & tub + a private toilet) is next to the laundry, the master equipped with an ensuite and a walk-in closet.

On the décor front, plantation shutters add coastal chic in several rooms and work well with the easy-clean timber/hybrid flooring that spans all the living and sleeping spaces, while screened windows, split system AC units and fans keep air flowing throughout, with solar to help offset costs.

This pretty pocket of Kuraby has many parks, but the best is Wally Tate - only a 10-minute walk and home to a playground, skate ramp, oval, and fenced area for dogs. From nearby Kuraby train station, it's a 40-minute city commute, and Kuraby State School, Runcorn State High and Underwood Marketplace are all just a short drive.
