The open-plan living and dining area forms the heart of the home, with sliding doors extending seamlessly to the covered alfresco and private courtyard. The outdoor area provides a peaceful space for entertaining, relaxing or enjoying a small garden without the maintenance of a large backyard.

All three bedrooms are conveniently positioned together, with the master suite offering a walk-in robe, ensuite and air conditioning. The remaining bedrooms feature built-in robes and ceiling fans, while the internal laundry provides additional everyday convenience.

The location is particularly appealing. Svoboda Park sits directly alongside the complex, offering a playground, basketball and netball courts, sports field and community facilities. Kuraby State School is approximately a three-minute walk away, while Kuraby train station is around a ten-minute walk, providing convenient rail access to Brisbane CBD and surrounding suburbs. Underwood Marketplace is approximately five minutes by car and offers Woolworths, Big W, cafes and restaurants, while the Pacific and Gateway Motorways provide easy access to Brisbane and the wider south-east.

Combining space, privacy, convenience and a low-maintenance lifestyle, 19/49 Didcot Street presents an appealing opportunity for first-home buyers, downsizers and investors alike.
