Step inside and be impressed by the well spaced layout over 122m² : a large, light-filled living area opens seamlessly onto a private outdoor area that overlooks, what could be a charming garden retreat - perfect for entertaining or relaxing. The separate dining area offers flexibility for family meals or hosting guests, while a third WC downstairs adds convenience for daily living.

All 3 bedrooms offer built in robes, fans and large windows that catch all the passing breezes. The private master bedroom, over looks the gardens with the additional luxury of a private balcony, an oversized wardrobe plus the convenience of an ensuite.

The private, gated entrance to the front door, provides a welcoming and secure feel, with internal access from the single garage offering peace of mind. An additional allocated parking space is also included for your convenience. Your visitors are also catered for with several designated parking areas.

This home is all about lifestyle and location - positioned literally across the road from local schools, making school drop-offs a breeze. Walking tracks, training fields, and multiple bus stops are only minutes away, offering an unbeatable blend of nature and urban access. Situated near one of the main transport arteries of this part of the Gold Coast, this location offers easy access to the M1 both northbound and southbound. You're also just minutes away from a variety of shopping destinations, ranging from Aldi to Harbour Town Premium Outlets.

Whether you're a first homebuyer, renovator, or investor, this property ticks all the boxes with its location, layout, and potential.
