The first two bedrooms offer built-in storage, with one featuring a fireplace, split-system AC, and access to a private courtyard-making it a perfect home office or guest retreat. The two central bathrooms cater to the family's needs-one with a shower and bathtub, plus two separate WC's for convenience.

A long hallway connects the back bedrooms to the main section of the home, and features elegant long windows that overlook the undercover entertaining area and back yard. At the back of the home, two additional bedrooms provide peaceful retreats, one with built-in storage. For those needing extra space, a rumpus room or teenager's retreat separate from the main home includes split-system AC-offering flexibility for a growing family.

The gardens are simple to care for with a small section of lawn and some garden beds. Parking is a breeze with a long driveway and carport leading to a secure garage/shed with an automatic roller door.

This home is just a convenient 30-minute drive to the CBD, or hop on the public transport options nearby.

A short trip away, historic Port Adelaide invites you to explore its vibrant mix of heritage architecture, eclectic shops, bustling markets, and waterfront dining. Meanwhile, Semaphore's charming main street exudes a quaint, village-like atmosphere, lined with boutique stores, cozy cafés, and inviting eateries-perfect for a leisurely day out.
