

Latham, 5 Pring Place

Sellers Chasing A Tree Change

This home presents an opportunity to live in a quiet cul-de-sac in one of Latham's most desirable streets. Sitting high overlooking Umbagog District Park and views out to the Brindabella mountains from the front deck, this home is one you have on your list and one you must see.

This solid property features increasingly rare original Tasmanian oak flooring, a fantastic downstairs garage with plenty of room for a workshop, cars and great access under the house for additional storage. A two car Tandem car port (with tall access!) is perfect for those that need large trailers locked away or a Caravan kept safe from the elements.

The location and community was an integral part of why the seller loved living here. As the seller puts it: "If we could pick up the house, the cul-de-sac with all of our neighbours and transport it to Queensland- We would." From the trusty neighbours in the street, to a short walk to the Umbagog District Park, a stroll to the Latham Primary School and Latham
