

65 M Greenwood Road, Leigh

Your Coastal Wilderness awaits

Tucked away in one of the coast's tightly held enclaves, this is an opportunity to secure over 2.5 hectares of private coastal land, where ocean views, stunning native forest, combine to create an exceptional lifestyle retreat.

Set against the boundary of the adjacent national park, the land itself is a standout feature - a beautiful blend of bush, mature kauri trees and other natives, creating a natural wonderland rich in birdlife and coastal atmosphere.

A cleared platform is already in place for your dream home, where a temporary double garage with a loft above provides immediate functionality, ideal for weekend stays, storage, or creative use, supported by a water tank and septic system. There is another single garage on site.

A shared access down to the end of Pakiri Beach allows residents to enjoy one of Northland's most iconic stretches of coastline just moments from home.

With only a few neighbouring properties along the road, privacy and tranquillity are assured, while the sounds of nature replace the noise of everyday life.

With its peaceful and private setting, the property remains conveniently located only 10 minutes from Gost Island Marine Reserve and beach, Leigh village, the stunning Pakiri Beach, including the estuary, and the motor camp.
