

4 Headland Road, Leschenault

Space for the Family, Shed & Everything In Between

Set on an impressive 4,545m² block in the highly sought-after Leschenault, 4 Headland Road offers the perfect combination of comfortable family living, generous entertaining spaces and room to enjoy the great outdoors. With established surrounds, plenty of parking and a powered shed, this is a property designed for those wanting more space without compromising on convenience.

Inside, the home offers a warm and inviting layout with a dedicated front living room and a central open-plan kitchen, dining and family area. The wood fireplace creates a cosy focal point for the cooler months, while the enclosed patio/sunroom provides an additional space to relax, unwind or entertain throughout the year.

Outside is where this property really shines, with a gabled entertaining area, additional lean-to parking and a powered shed providing plenty of options for hobbies, storage or the toys that come with a lifestyle property. The expansive block offers an abundance of space for families, pets, gardens and future possibilities.
