

Lithgow, 152 Macauley Street

Private Mountain Retreat

With an elevated position offering magnificent views across the Lithgow Valley, this private family home is warm and inviting with classic features that include attractive bay windows, vaulted ceilings, and polished timber floors.

The home features 3 bedrooms including a main with ensuite and each with their own verandah access, a stylish main bathroom with double vanity, double shower, and a luxurious spa bath, a classic kitchen with timber bench tops, stainless appliances and an island bench, a lounge room with cosy wood burner, and a large rear sunroom.

The 600 square metre block has been beautifully landscaped and includes established gardens, veggie patch, a garden shed, and a private gazebo boasting a great view.

The single garage has been converted to a studio and workshop which can easily be repurposed if required.
