

38 Coalbrook Street, Lithgow

Charming Cottage with Outstanding Potential

Positioned on a generous corner allotment in a convenient location, this neat and well maintained clad home offers comfortable living, excellent outdoor space and an abundance of potential for first home buyers, and investors.

Beautifully presented with established gardens, a classic white picket fence and welcoming front verandah, the home retains plenty of character while providing practical modern comforts. Inside, you'll find three well-proportioned bedrooms, a cosy lounge room with gas heating and split system air conditioning, a functional timber kitchen with ample storage and dining space, plus a sun filled enclosed rear living space that provides the perfect second family room or entertaining area.

Step outside to enjoy the private paved courtyard, established gardens and level backyard, while the detached garage and corner position provide excellent accessibility and additional storage options.

Located just moments from schools, sporting facilities, parks and the Lithgow CBD, this is a fantastic opportunity to secure an affordable home in a sought after residential location.
