has been updated with modern chrome-coloured door handles and new LED lighting.

Follow the flow through to the accommodation wing, where you find three generous bedrooms, all complete with ceiling fans to ensure year-round comfort.

Enjoy your morning coffee on the front or back timber decks, which have been freshly oiled and refreshed with charcoal blue railings and gutters for a sophisticated aesthetic.

Downstairs, the property reveals its true scale with a sprawling multi-purpose area - whether you transform it into a home office, a gym, or an indulgent mancave, the space is a blank canvas for your needs.

With the exterior pressure-cleaned and trees trimmed for maximum street appeal, this property feels immediately welcoming.

The location offers unparalleled convenience, situated just two minutes from St Paul's Catholic Primary School and three minutes from Logan Central Shopping Centres. Commuters will appreciate the short drive to the train station and easy access to the M1, keeping you just 23km from the Brisbane CBD. With the Logan Hospital and Griffith University also within a 7km radius, this property represents a prime opportunity in a high-growth corridor.

Opportunities of this calibre in such a central location are incredibly rare.

Interstate owner has made the firm decision to sell, and this prime property must be sold at auction.
