gardens

Flanked by dwellings of a similar high calibre, this superb property makes a strong first impression with its structured front garden, quality drive up to the double garage, chic plantation shutters gracing the window of the front rumpus and a solid timber front door.

Inside, things get even better! Honey-toned hybrid timber floors connect the open rumpus with the combined kitchen/dining/family living hub out back where the culinary hub takes pride of place with reams of handle-free cabinetry, oversize mod cons - including a 5-burner gas cooker - farm sink with a hose tap in the stone-topped island bench and a separate double sink adjacent in the Butler's Pantry.

For cosy respite at night, the 4 bedrooms are all plush carpeted, the master upping the ante with a customised WIR and elegant ensuite with twin vanity and frameless glass shower enclosure.

Like the ensuite, the bigger family bathroom - along with the guest powder room - sports flash square set floor to ceiling tiling, with eye-catching feature walls. As well as a shower, the main bathroom has a floor-mounted gooseneck tap into a freestanding tub.

Throughout, ceilings rise to 2.7m and there's a stunning mix of discreet recessed LED strip lighting and bespoke pendants - globes and timber battens - that allow you to create different moods. The ducted AC is zoned for energy efficiency and everyone can sleep easy knowing the alarm system comprises no less than four 4k definition cameras.

Rounding out this incredible offering is a fully integrated laundry and a fan-cooled alfresco entertaining area off the main living hub that overlooks sculpted bush in the fenced backyard. All this is just a 5-minute drive to Logan Reserve Shopping Village (Woolies) and new Corymbia State School, and only 10 to Marsden State High.

If you're partial to a bit of plush living, you've come to the right place.
