Private Family Living on 716m² in Convenient Loganholme

Set on a fully landscaped 716m² block, this private three-bedroom home combines generous living spaces, refreshed interiors and a large backyard, all within Loganholme's well-connected location.

Space for whole family, including a spacious lounge and dining area, while a study nook provides a practical spot for homework or working from home. The large kitchen features new appliances, complemented by slate flooring throughout, fresh paint and new lighting.

Both bathrooms have been renovated, including one with a brand-new renovation, providing a comfortable home ready to enjoy.

Outside, the expansive backyard offers plenty of room for children, pets and entertaining. Full paling fencing and an electric entry gate create a private setting, while a large storage shed provides valuable space for tools, equipment and hobbies. The generous block also offers room to explore a granny flat, subject to council approval.

The Loganholme location adds everyday convenience, with the Hyperdome's shopping, dining and services, plus bus connections
