Affordable Woden Valley Living or a Smart Investment Opportunity

An outstanding entry into the heart of the Woden Valley, this generously sized studio apartment in the Woden Gardens complex presents exceptional value for owner-occupiers and investors alike. Offering more internal space than nearby one-bedroom apartments, this is an opportunity to secure flexibility, comfort and long-term appeal in a highly connected location.

The apartment is double glazed throughout and features a full-sized, well-appointed kitchen complete with breakfast bar, dishwasher and electric cooking - a standout inclusion for a studio.

The open-plan living area has been enhanced with new timber-style flooring, reverse cycle heating and cooling unit and custom built-in cabinetry thoughtfully designed to accommodate a Murphy bed. Other apartments of this popular floorplan have added dividers to create a segregated bedroom space, highlighting the versatility and future potential of the layout. The living area enjoys a coveted north-east outlook over the established gardens and greenery, quietly positioned in the complex. The bathroom is well configured with a combined bath and shower, along with integrated laundry facilities including a washer
