"Where the Children Grew Up and We Grew Older"

After 33 wonderful years in their beautifully renovated family home, the current owners are ready to downsize, leaving behind a legacy of comfort and style. This meticulously maintained property offers not just a place to live but a true sanctuary.

Situated on a generous corner block, the home is surrounded by stunning gardens that attract a vibrant array of birdlife. The centerpiece of the garden is a charming mossy stone 'river bed,' an eye-catching feature that adds character and tranquility to the outdoor space.

Inside, the home is immaculate, offering a move-in-ready experience. Clear-coated Ash floors provide warmth and charm, while the open-plan living area is bathed in natural light. There are four bedrooms, including a spacious main with built-in robes and a sparkling ensuite. A major renovation in 2019 brought the kitchen and both bathrooms up to the highest standards, including the installation of LED downlights and wall insulation in many rooms. Ducted reverse cycle heating and cooling, ensures year-round comfort while a mains gas fireplace adds an extra touch of warmth on those cozy winter nights.

The rear hardwood deck overlooks the private gardens, shaded by a large, cantilevered umbrella. Additional features include a double carport, a tandem garage and ample storage space. With two driveways-one leading to the garage and the other to the carport-access and convenience are assured.

Set on an impressive 892m2 block in the RZ2 zone, this property offers future potential in addition to its immediate appeal. Families will love the location, just 300 meters from MacGregor Primary School and close to the Kippax and Charnwood shopping centres.

This property has been a loving home for one family for over 30 years but now it is time to love another.
