- transport, schools, shopping centres and Brisbane CBD.
- Equipped with practical additions including air conditioning and a secure double garage, offering a functional head start for the new owners.

The existing two-storey layout provides a robust foundation for a creative vision, featuring three bedrooms with built-in robes and a central bathroom on the upper level. The first floor is designed for flow, housing a kitchen with an adjacent pantry, a dedicated dining area, and a large living room that opens onto a front porch. At the rear, a spacious rumpus room offers additional living flexibility, providing the structural "bones" necessary to facilitate a seamless transition from its original charm into a contemporary residence. The ground floor further enhances this versatility with a dedicated multi-purpose space, a laundry, and an expansive double garage, offering ample room for a workshop or secure storage.

While the home is ready for a comprehensive renovation, modern functional additions such as air conditioning and solar panels are already in place, providing a practical head start for any planned improvements. Outside, the property is characterized by a flat, usable yard that includes established gardens and a porch, perfect for those looking to create an outdoor entertaining oasis.

Location remains the ultimate asset here, as this address sits within a prime MacGregor pocket characterised by strong growth and surrounded by quality homes. Benefit from easy access to the retail hub of Garden City, Griffith University, and the South East Busway, ensuring outstanding lifestyle convenience and connectivity to the Brisbane CBD. Positioned within respected school catchments, the property promises enduring value for families looking to plant roots in a well-connected community.

Explore the immense possibilities. A must-sell, this is an opportunity not to miss.
