

29 Bennelong Crescent, Macquarie

More Bang for Your Buck

While the phrase originated in the 1950s as a reference to government spending it has entered the general vocabulary as an effective way of referencing a hidden opportunity. And so, it is here.

Much of the inner north is 10-15 minutes away from the City. If you live at 29 Bennelong Crescent then, according to Google Maps, you are 10 minutes from the ANU and 11 from the edge of the city centre. So why spend your money on the inner north when you can be in a newer home in one of the front suburbs of Belconnen, where you can enjoy a better lifestyle by being closer to a broad range of shops and services and at a substantially lower cost. Crazy right?

What's on offer is a home on an almost 800 sqm block, and while it may be in need of some refreshing, the bones are good. Comprising 3 bedrooms, a large lounge flowing into a combined kitchen & dining, separate laundry and bathroom, and an eclectic range of carpets throughout. While the gardens are established, they do need a little bit of love and attention, but overall, it is a great package that you can move into immediately.

So, over to you to make your own judgment but I suggest you come and have a look as it may be the beginning of a wonderful relationship.
