large kitchen island and level access to the sheltered courtyard epitomises convenience, together with a refined lifestyle. The staggered hallway leads to three double bedrooms, each thoughtfully positioned for privacy and comfort. The primary suite is a true retreat, complete with its own balcony overlooking the harbour, an ensuite, and a walk-in wardrobe. The stylish family bathroom services the other two double bedrooms, meaning family, friends or guests will be accommodated in comfort.

The section has been meticulously landscaped for easy maintenance, and additional features include the underfloor heating throughout most of the home, low-E double glazing, a pellet fire, and exceptional insulation-ensuring year-round luxury and energy efficiency. This is a home that seamlessly combines architectural flair with practical family living, all while offering breathtaking views and stunning street appeal. Contact us today to arrange a viewing and experience this remarkable property for yourself.
