Peaceful Country Escape with Endless Possibilities

Escape to the serenity of country living at 560 Beaver Rock Road, Beaver Rock, where just under 5 acres of peaceful rural landscape create the perfect lifestyle retreat. Surrounded by established trees, open space and parkland-style grounds, this inviting property offers the kind of privacy, freedom and relaxed atmosphere that is becoming increasingly hard to find.

Whether it's enjoying your morning coffee on the covered front patio, entertaining family and friends under the enormous rear outdoor area, tending to the raised vegetable gardens or collecting fresh fruit from your own established trees, this property embraces a slower, more connected way of life. With a dam, huge water supply and plenty of usable land, there is ample opportunity to create your own hobby farm, keep animals, grow produce or simply enjoy the space and tranquility around you.

Inside, the home is warm, comfortable and designed for easy family living. Offering four bedrooms, including three with built-in robes, the layout is practical and welcoming, with ceiling fans throughout and split system air conditioning in the main living area ensuring year-round comfort. Open plan living and dining spaces connect seamlessly to the well-appointed kitchen, creating a central gathering place where everyday life unfolds with ease.

The outdoor entertaining space is a true highlight of the property, offering an expansive covered area perfect for long lunches, weekend barbecues and celebrations with loved ones, all while overlooking the peaceful rural surrounds. An additional bathroom and laundry within this space add extra convenience for entertaining and outdoor living.

For those seeking space for projects, hobbies or serious equipment storage, the impressive infrastructure on this property is sure to deliver. There are two 6x6m sheds (one with power and lighting), along with a substantial 12x18m shed featuring two large roller doors (4.3m and 4.5m wide) and 3.6m high clearance, making access easy for larger vehicles and machinery. Built with heavy-duty 5&ndash;6 inch (32MPa) industrial-strength concrete flooring, this shed is ideally suited to trucks, tractors and heavy machinery, offering exceptional durability and functionality. Combined with excellent storage options for caravans, boats, vehicles and workshop use, and with nearby boat ramp access and plenty of room to move, this property is perfectly suited to those who value outdoor living, working and adventure.

Combining lifestyle, practicality and peaceful acreage living, 560 Beaver Rock Road is more than just a property - it's an opportunity to embrace space, self-sufficiency and the relaxed country lifestyle so many dream of.
