west-orientated decking. From here, you'll relish the attractive wide spaces of your yard as well as glorious vistas out to the Tararua Ranges.

Three bedrooms comfortably cater for family and guests, while an office/study behind the internal access double garaging, provides a private area for work and/or hobbies. The family bathroom includes both bath and shower, with an independent toilet adjacent. A second toilet brings additional convenience to the household.

Outside, the beautifully-edged, landscaped gardens and shrubberies provide gorgeous accents of colour, form, and texture: a backdrop to the serene expanse of lawn, front and back.

And with the lack of covenants on this property, and the home situated toward the rear, perhaps subdivision potential could be investigated for those interested in further development?

This is truly an elegant, classic Lansdowne property with superb features, and we recommend early viewing to secure.
