independent toilet - offer the most superb of modern appointments. Open-concept living is spacious, light, bright, and restful. Additionally downstairs, two beautiful double bedrooms feature wall-papered accents and double wardrobes; internal access to garaging is convenient; laundry facilities exist within the kitchen confines.

Upstairs, chapel ceilings drape gracefully within the one extra-large bedroom and private sitting room/living area, for reading, hobbies, or perhaps an art studio? The master ensuite also showcases raked ceilings, and is a generous expanse of opulent bliss complete with chandelier, double vanity, exquisite wallpaper, shower, toilet, bidet, and auto-controlled skylight.

Such a sumptuous home would be tempting enough, but place it within an exclusive, hidden enclave, mere metres from town, and you have a proposition irresistible to many. Our advice, act immediately.
