Spacious Family Living with Future Duplex Potential (STCA)

Positioned on the high side of the street and set on a generous approx. 556sqm block with attractive north facing aspect and wide 15.24 metre frontage approx., this well-presented residence offers the perfect blend of comfortable family living today and exciting development potential for the future (subject to council approval).

Ideal for growing families, the home boasts a bright and spacious interior with five generous bedrooms. The master includes a walk-in robe, while built-in wardrobes feature in three bedrooms.

The living zones, including a lounge and separate dining area, provide flexibility for everyday living and entertaining.

At the heart of the home is a modern polyurethane kitchen complete with Caesarstone benchtops, stainless steel gas cooking and dishwasher, designed to cater to busy family life.

For developers and savvy investors, the sizeable block and location present an excellent opportunity to live in, lease out or plan for a future duplex project (STCA), making this a smart long-term acquisition.
