flexibility for families. The functional kitchen features gas cooking, ample storage and a stone benchtop, complemented by a separate dining area ideal for family meals and entertaining.

A bedroom is conveniently positioned downstairs with its own split air conditioning and ensuite, making it ideal for guests, extended family or flexible living arrangements. A separate toilet and laundry add further practicality.

Upstairs, three generously sized bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, with built-in wardrobes and split air conditioning. The bedrooms enjoy beautiful valley views, while the main bathroom is conveniently positioned upstairs.

Step outside to a truly zero-maintenance backyard featuring artificial turf, providing an ideal space for family gatherings, children to play or outdoor entertaining without the upkeep of a traditional lawn. The sunroom provides an additional versatile space to relax and enjoy the home's beautiful surroundings.

Adding further convenience, a temple and mosque are within walking distance, making this an especially appealing location for families seeking easy access to places of worship.

The property also features a total of two car spaces, comprising one lock-up garage and one additional car space, providing convenient parking for the household.
