Elevated Charm and Verandah Living in Mitchell

Perched proudly to catch the breeze, this highset three-bedroom home combines classic country appeal with the kind of practical touches that make daily life genuinely simpler. From the moment you climb the steps, there's a warmth here that feels instantly like home.

The front and back verandahs are the true showstoppers — one for greeting the morning sun with a coffee in hand, the other for winding down as the day slips away. Between them, you'll find a comfortable interior kept pleasant year-round by reverse cycle air-conditioners, so both the sticky summers and the crisp winter mornings are handled with ease.

The master bedroom is a quiet retreat all its own, featuring a clever walk-through robe that leads directly into the ensuite. Two further bedrooms round out the accommodation, while an internal laundry keeps the household routine running without fuss.

Now, let's talk storage — because this home has plenty. The built-in space underneath includes a dedicated storage room plus multiple cupboards, meaning tools, treasures and seasonal clutter finally have somewhere to live. The double garage adds even more
