

187 Alice Street, Mitchell

Space, Serenity and Serious Country Comfort

Beyond the impressive cast iron gates, this expansive four-bedroom home makes an immediate statement: there is room here for everyone. Set on nearly one and a half acres of fully fenced land, it delivers generous indoor proportions, leafy privacy and relaxed rural atmosphere.

At the centre, a modern kitchen anchors the floorplan with ease, complete with a huge walk-in butler's pantry that keeps preparation, storage and entertaining beautifully organised. Two large living areas give the household genuine flexibility, whether you need a formal lounge, family zone, media space or quiet retreat. A brick fireplace adds character, while reverse cycle air-conditioning throughout ensures comfort across the seasons.

The master bedroom is impressively sized and includes its own ensuite, creating a private retreat with plenty of breathing room. Two additional bedrooms feature large attached sleep-outs, offering excellent extra space for offices, studies, reading corners or play areas. Modern bathrooms enhance the fresh, practical feel of the home.

Outdoors, the sense of space continues. A covered pergola overlooks the sparkling saltwater pool, while wooden swinging chairs around the firepit set the scene for long evenings under country skies. Pop-up sprinklers support the gardens, solar panels assist with energy efficiency, and the powered shed provides ample room for three cars, plus a water tank and dog enclosures.

Private, spacious and wonderfully equipped for country living, this property deserves attention. Book your inspection and experience the scale for yourself.
