Country Charm on Nearly One Acre

Welcome to a property that proves country living and modern comfort aren't mutually exclusive. This charming three-bedroom low-set home sits on nearly one acre of flat, fully fenced land in the heart of Mitchell — a town where the pace is slower, the stars are brighter, and the neighbours still wave.

Step inside to discover modern flooring flowing throughout, lending a fresh and contemporary feel to every room. The updated kitchen is a genuine standout, ready for everything from weeknight dinners to Sunday roasts that bring the whole family together. The master suite is generously proportioned, featuring dual access and built-in storage that makes clutter a distant memory. In fact, built-in storage runs throughout the home, because nobody ever complained about having too many cupboards.

Out the back, a covered pergola provides the perfect spot for morning coffees or evening wind-downs, overlooking a spacious rear yard that stretches into a separate paddock. There is even an additional toilet located within the pergola area — a thoughtful touch for outdoor entertaining or those muddy-boot days. The carport includes dedicated workshop space for the tinkerer or tradesperson in the
