SPECTACULAR RIVERFRONT ACREAGE WITH SWEEPING VALLEY VIEWS

UNDER INSTRUCTION OF THE DEED ADMINISTRATOR.

Set high on the hill and overlooking the stunning Manning Valley, this remarkable 27.11 hectare* (approx. 67 acres) property captures the very best of riverfront rural living. With two dwellings, fertile farmland, and breathtaking scenery from every angle, 89 Factory Road, Mitchells Island is a rare opportunity to secure a piece of history and natural beauty in one of the region's most picturesque locations.

The main residence enjoys an elevated position with panoramic views stretching across the Manning Valley and toward the distant mountains. Designed for comfort and space, the home features three generous bedrooms, two bathrooms, and multiple living areas that embrace the outlook. Entertain or unwind on the expansive deck while soaking in the spectacular valley and river views.

The second dwelling, a rustic farm cottage, offers plenty of potential for those with a creative vision - bringing back the charm of what once was. The original homestead and dairy, believed to date back to the late 1800s, still stand on the property, providing a tangible link to the area's rich farming history.

With multiple water tanks servicing the homes and a dam that can service the stock troughs, the property offers strong water security. Well set up for agriculture, it has previously been used for cattle grazing and includes a machinery shed conveniently located near the river.

Down by the water, a peaceful spot invites you to sit back, relax, or even launch a small boat for a tranquil cruise along the river.

An added opportunity exists to acquire the adjoining holding at 149 Factory Road (aerial photo attached showing properties together), comprising 28.84 hectares* (71.3 acres*) over two additional titles. Together, the properties have been set up for cattle and share a connected water supply and road network for livestock.

This is more than a farm - it's a lifestyle defined by space, serenity, and history.
