

43 Gimba Street, Mitchelton

FAMILY HOME WITH SWEEPING VIEWS!

Positioned high on one of Mitchelton's most elevated streets, this beautifully designed residence captures sweeping panoramic views across north Brisbane, stretching all the way to Moreton Bay. With a prized due north rear aspect, expansive outdoor entertaining, and a versatile dual-level layout, this is a home that balances scale, outlook, and lifestyle in a truly unique way.

On arrival, you're welcomed by a private in-ground pool framed by a generous alfresco entertaining area, creating an immediate sense of retreat. It's a striking introduction and sets the tone for what lies beyond.

Inside, the entry level opens to a stunning open-plan living, dining, and kitchen zone defined by high-pitched ceilings and walls of glass that draw the view front and centre. Natural light floods the space, while the elevated position ensures an ever-changing backdrop of treetops, skyline and bay glimpses. Just off the dining area, a custom piece of timber cabinetry integrates a gas fireplace, adding warmth and a place to gather with family. Adding to the functionality, there is also a sizeable home office, perfect for WFH or an additional space for the kids to study after school.

The kitchen has been designed to modern standards, offering stone benchtops, stainless steel appliances, and bespoke timber cabinetry with excellent storage and preparation space. It connects seamlessly to an expansive timber-clad deck with frameless glass balustrading, enhancing the sense of openness and allowing uninterrupted enjoyment of the greenery and sweeping outlook.

The primary suite is positioned on this level for privacy and ease of living. Featuring a generous built-in robe and a well-appointed ensuite complete with floor-to-ceiling tiles and dual vanities, creating a refined and functional retreat.

Downstairs, a timber staircase leads to an oversized additional living area that anchors the lower level. This flexible space is surrounded by three well-proportioned bedrooms, each with built-in robes, split-system air-conditioning and direct access to a covered timber deck that wraps around the eastern side of the home. This level also includes a large multipurpose room, ideal for storage, hobbies or a home gym, along with an additional bathroom suited to guests or older children seeking separation.

Externally, the backyard has been thoughtfully landscaped to a high standard. Lush lawns and established gardens are complemented by natural rock retaining walls that ground the home within its setting and enhance the connection to the surrounding landscape. The result is a private, elevated sanctuary that feels immersed in nature while remaining close to everything Mitchelton has to offer.

Homes of this scale, position and outlook are rarely offered. Combining panoramic views, a due north rear aspect, and multiple living and entertaining zones, this is a distinctive opportunity in one of Mitchelton's most tightly held pockets that cannot be missed.
