

29 Wallaby Circuit, Mona Vale

Quintessential Family Home with Space, Sunshine & Privacy

Warm, welcoming and wonderfully spacious, this beautifully maintained dual level residence captures everything a family could want from Northern Beaches living. Designed with growing families in mind, an impressive selection of living and entertaining spaces provides exceptional versatility, while a calm coastal palette, timber flooring and abundant natural light create an inviting sense of home from the moment you step inside.

At the heart of the home, the open plan living and dining area connects seamlessly with the spacious stone kitchen and flows outdoors to a covered Vergola entertaining deck. Perfect for relaxed family living and year round entertaining, it overlooks an exceptionally private, sun-filled level backyard framed by mature gardens, with plenty of room for children to play and exciting scope to add a pool in the future.

- Beautifully presented family home offering generous proportions and exceptional versatility
- Multiple living zones including formal living and dining, open plan family living and dining, plus a separate enclosed media room
- Spacious stone kitchen with gas cooking, island bench, excellent storage and a central position overlooking the main living spaces
