

5993 Tweed Valley Way, Mooball

148-Acre Coastal Countryside Farm — Mooball, Northern NSW

Escape to the perfect blend of country tranquillity and coastal convenience with this remarkable 60-hectare (148-acre) property nestled in the scenic Mooball region of Northern NSW. Steeped in charm and history, the original 3-bedroom farmhouse retains its authentic features throughout, offering timeless character and endless potential for restoration or modern transformation. Currently operating as a cattle farm rearing dairy heifers and steers, the land is fenced and ideally suited for cattle, horses, or other livestock. The ridge lines of the property offer sweeping ocean views, and the north-facing aspect ensures sun-drenched days and spectacular sunsets.

The property is located near the famous Tweed Valley Farmhouse Cheeses, a celebrated local producer and popular tourist destination renowned for crafting some of the best cheese in the region, adding both lifestyle appeal and local charm to this unique offering. With possible development potential (subject to council approval), this property represents a rare investment and lifestyle opportunity in one of the Northern Rivers' most sought-after regions.
