

Moonbi, 34 Gill Street

Charming Federation Beauty in Moonbi – Village Lifestyle Close to Town

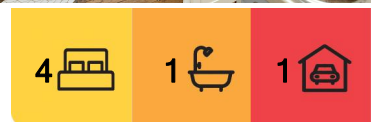

Step into a piece of history with this striking red brick Federation home, dating back to the late 1890s–early 1900s. Proudly positioned on a fully fenced block with two street frontages, this beautifully preserved residence offers the perfect blend of timeless character and modern comfort in the heart of Moonbi village.

Boasting four spacious bedrooms, this home features original details that showcase the craftsmanship of a bygone era – ornate mantels with working fireplaces, polished timber floorboards, double-hung windows, and stunning 11ft pressed metal ceilings that add elegance and grandeur throughout.

The wide entry hallway and feature archway offer a warm welcome, leading to generous living spaces and a beautifully updated electric kitchen, which also includes the original working wood fire stove – perfect for rustic roasts and baking with old-world charm.

Freshly painted interiors bring a light and airy feel to the home, while the modern bathroom with a combined laundry adds everyday convenience. A second external toilet and ample yard space offer practical functionality for families or entertainers.

With town water, its own septic system, and just a short drive to Tamworth, 34 Gill Street is a rare opportunity to enjoy a relaxed village lifestyle without compromising on accessibility. Not heritage listed, the property also gives you the freedom to enhance or extend as you desire.

This is your chance to own a truly special piece of local history — a home that feels as warm and inviting today as it did over a century ago.
