

101 Jack O'Sullivan Road, Moorebank

Rare R3 Corner Site with 42m Frontage

Opportunities of this calibre are exceptionally rare in Moorebank. Positioned on a prominent corner, 101 Jack O'Sullivan Road combines a flat 646sqm parcel of land, highly desirable R3 Medium Density Residential zoning and an impressive combined frontage of approximately 42 metres-creating an outstanding opportunity for developers, investors and forward-thinking buyers.

The property's substantial corner exposure and generous frontage offer exceptional flexibility for a range of future redevelopment possibilities, subject to council approval. Corner development sites with these dimensions are increasingly difficult to secure, making this a unique chance to acquire a premium landholding within one of Moorebank's most established and tightly held locations.

Currently occupying the block is a clean and comfortable three-bedroom residence. Although largely original, the home is immediately liveable and provides an excellent opportunity to renovate, lease out or occupy while exploring the property's future potential. The practical layout features spacious living and dining areas, a neat kitchen, covered outdoor entertaining and generous vehicle accommodation.
