

20 Burke Drive, Moranbah

Spacious 3-Bedroom Home with Large Shed —Ideal Family Living or Investment

Positioned in the thriving mining town of Moranbah, this well-presented three-bedroom home offers comfort, space, and practicality - perfect for families, company tenants, or investors looking to secure a solid property in a high-demand location.

Inside, the home features three generous bedrooms, a functional bathroom, and a comfortable living area designed for easy everyday living. The practical layout makes the most of the space, while air-conditioning ensures year-round comfort in the Queensland climate.

Step outside and you'll find one of the standout features of the property - a large shed, ideal for storing tools, vehicles, or setting up a workshop. The spacious yard provides plenty of room for kids and pets to play, along with space for additional parking, caravans, or boats.

Located close to local schools, parks, and amenities, this property offers both convenience and lifestyle in one of Central Queensland's key regional communities.
