Mosgiel, 5 Kintyre Place

Kintyre At It's Best

Put this on your buying list and see it as soon as you possibly can. This superior quality 4 double bedroom double glazed family home is surely one that will create a reaction from the market. Built in 2003 with family in mind. The kitchen dining living room is an example of the space that's available. Adjoining this area is a generous separate lounge. Looking the other way from the living room you have a sunny conservatory overlooking the beautifully laid out garden and lawn area. Further to this are the bi-folding doors opening out to the Archgola covered courtyard and lawns beyond. Speaking of the garden there's a glasshouse, a shade house and a potting shed in place.

Back to the house, the two bathrooms ease the bottleneck prior to work and school. Plenty of storage throughout the house too. Including ceiling space above the large double garage.

The coup de grace is the amount of off-street parking. All this in a lovely quiet cul de sac.
