5 Tudor Lane, Mosgiel

Wow... Check Out The Renovations!!!

In recent years this home inside has been transformed into the perfect home to retire to for couples that still appreciate some gardens. Now that the roof has been replaced, modernized kitchen, new bathroom, carport, fully insulated walls, and double glazed this home is looking great. Add to this the new carport to support the garage, raised gardens, and large shed for the garden lovers, this home will appeal to many.

Step inside, and to your right you'll find a separate lounge, a cosy space complete with a fireplace, double glazing throughout, and lovely views out across to Brooklands Park.

Moving through to the heart of the home, the dining area is kept comfortable year-round with a heat pump and offers seamless indoor-outdoor flow to the sunny deck, perfect for entertaining or relaxing. The modernised kitchen is well-appointed with great storage and enjoys beautiful early morning sun.

Down the hallway, there's another heat pump for added comfort, along with plenty of storage throughout the home.

The bedrooms are all well positioned, the first is generously sized with a double wardrobe and enjoys late afternoon sun, the second is bright and sunny, while the third receives the morning sun and has a lovely outlook over the garden.

The bathroom is practical and tidy, featuring a shower, toilet, and a cleverly hidden laundry for added convenience.

Heading out the back door, you'll find a sunny deck area, complete with a handmade blind and mat creating shelter, a great space to enjoy in all seasons. The section is semi low maintenance, with gardens, vegetable plots, and raised garden beds for those who enjoy a bit of homegrown produce.

All of this is positioned in a quiet area, just moments from the Taieri Bowling Club, Taieri Tennis Club, and Taieri Cricket Club, and only a five-minute walk to Woolworths.

A fantastic opportunity in a great location, 5 Tudor Lane is ready to welcome you home.
