Decision Time!!

Our vendor has made her decision to sell, now it's your turn to make yours. Do you buy, and then what? If you're the type who can see potential where others see hard work, this three-bedroom home on its generous 606sqm section (more or less) is calling for someone to roll up their sleeves and get stuck in.

This is a genuine do-up and will suit a capable handyman or renovator ready to take on a project and bring this property back to life. There's plenty of scope here for transformation for those with vision, energy, and a willingness to put in the work.

Set within walking distance to the local swimming pool and conveniently close to shops and schools, the location adds real appeal and future promise.

One thing is clear, this property is seriously for sale. Opportunity knocks for those ready to make a decision and turn potential into reality.

Roll up your sleeves and unlock the potential.
