Mosgiel, 9 Cedar Crescent

Stand Out Home And Great Location!!!

Lots to be impressed with here... in the front door, down the hallway you are drawn to the large semi separate lounge heated with its woodfire that's connected to the water cylinder for those cheap power bills.

From there you can either go out to the private courtyard or stroll into the open plan kitchen and dining area. The kitchen offers lots of storage and bench space, perfect for entertaining and cooking those special family dinners.

This area and the lounge being north facing is warm and has with lovely views to the backyard, from the dining area there is also access to the deck where you can relax or step down to the cobblestones in the sheltered courtyard and appreciate the array of colour from the established gardens.

This home being 190m2 more or less has three large bedrooms with excellent storage and a family bathroom with bath & shower options.

Garaging is sorted with internal access and a carport out front for extra parking. Located in a very sought after location, that's so close to the shops, schools, the bowling club and has a park nearby.

You need to be quick if you want to own it!!!
