stone bench-tops, a gas cooktop, double wall oven, range hood, and a large walk-in pantry. A separate wing allows for in-law or teenage accommodation with its own kitchen and living area.

Eco conscious features include Hebel construction and double glazing for maximum insulation, verandah width which allows sun inside in the winter and excludes it in the summer, solar hot water, abundant natural light from seven skylights, and fans throughout for optimal air circulation backed up by air conditioning for those really hot days. In the winter the house has under floor heating throughout.

Outdoors, enjoy landscaped gardens, a 49m² covered entertainment area between a heated in-ground pool with a spa seat waterfall, and a kids' play area with a powered cubby house. A wide wrap-around verandah offers easy access to every corner of the property.

Connected by a breezeway, the three car garage features a workshop, bathroom adjacent to the pool and four roller doors for convenient access, with two being automatic. Additionally, an 83 square metre fully powered farm shed provides ample storage for equipment.

The secondary dwelling, currently occupied by a long-term tenant, includes three bedrooms, a kitchen, bathroom, and an L-shaped living area—ideal for generating rental income.

The property features a large dam with excellent catchment from the Razorback Range, secured with a 7 meter concrete spillway to direct overflow. Ten fenced paddocks, a self-watering system, and extensive irrigation make this land perfect for agriculture. A cattle yard with crush and loading ramps, 3-phase power and water supply from the dam throughout. This is a rare chance to own prime rural real estate.
