Inside, accommodation includes five generously sized bedrooms, with built-in wardrobes. The luxurious master suite boasts an oversized walk-in wardrobe and a renovated ensuite with a walk-in shower, rainwater showerhead and marbled tiles. The centrally located family bathroom offers two-way access, while an external laundry with an additional toilet is perfect for poolside convenience.

The heart of the home is the brand-new designer kitchen, featuring double pantries, marbled stone benchtops, a breakfast bar, and handmade Spanish tiles. Premium appliances include an oversized Smeg gas cooktop and oven, an integrated dishwasher, and remote-control cabinet lighting. Flowing seamlessly into the spacious family room, glass bi-fold doors open onto a large elevated entertaining deck, overlooking the solar-heated in-ground pool, cabana, and lawn, a perfect setting for outdoor entertaining and family living. Additional features include split system air conditioning and gas heating for year-round comfort. Thoughtfully placed skylights enhance natural light, making the most of the north-facing aspect. Attic storage with ladder access, and rear under-house storage provide ample storage space for growing families.

The location is ideal, with a 3-minute walk to Aldi and a 7-minute walk to the railway station. Enjoy easy access to bushwalks, the M1 motorway, local restaurants, and Hornsby Westfield. The home is within the Mt Kuring-gai Public School catchment (390m away) and is also close to Mt Colah Public, Hornsby Heights Public, and Asquith Public Schools and elite private schools as well as the Gibberagong Environmental Education Centre. Positioned conveniently between Sydney CBD and the Central Coast, this is a superb choice for families looking for accessibility and lifestyle.

For those seeking future potential, the 1,220sqm (approx.) block offers development opportunities (STCA), with land dimensions of 60.9m length x 20.1m width.

Blending historic charm with modern elegance, this beautifully crafted family sanctuary is ready to be enjoyed. A must-see for those seeking space, style, and lifestyle.
